Sleeping Volcanoes

A thin, vapory smoke, lazily ascending from its crater may be the only visible sign of life in the sleeping volcano, but within is a raging sea of fire, molten rock and sulphurous gases. Those who make their homes in the peaceful valleys below know the danger and, though frequently warned by the numblings and by the rumblings and quakings, these signs of impending eruption go unheeded. They are living in fancied security when the giant awakes with deafening roars and they are lost beneath a downpour of heated rock and scalding ashes. Thousands of blood poison sufferers are living upon a sleeping volcano and are taking desperate chances, for under the Mercury and Potash treat-Bowling Green, Ky.,

ment the external symptoms of the disease disappear, and the deluded victim is happy in the belief of a complete cure, but the fires of contagion have only been smothered in the system, and as soon as these minerals are left off will blaze up again. Geasional sores break out in the mouth, a red rash appears on the body, and these warning symptoms, if not heeded, are soon followed by fearful eruptions, sores, copper colored splotches, swollen glands, loss of hair and other sickening symptoms.

Mercury and Potash not only fail to cure blood poison, but cause Mercurial Rheumatism, necrosis of the bones, offensive ulcers and inflammation of the Stomach and Bowels.

The use of S. S. S. is never followed by any bad results. It cures without the slightest injury to the system. We offer $1,000.00 for proof up the general health.

We will mail free our special book on Contagious Blood Poison, which gives all the symptoms of the disease with full directions for home treatment. Medical advice is furnished by our physicians without charge. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

March 24 1000 Gentieme : For over four years I suffered greatly from a severe case of contagious blood sinon. I went to Hot Springs, staying there four months at a big expense. I then consulted physicians, who prescribed Mercury. Nothing did me any good, in fact, the treatment proved more harmful than beneficial. I mentioned my case to a friend, who told me that S. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Cincinnati, Dec. 31.—Racing in the fog was the feature at Newport this afternoon, and the small crowd present was treated to a novelty. It was impossible to distinguish the colors of the herses, or even see them going around the fir turn until they were well into the home stretch. The sun lighted up the near turn, makins it possible to see the horses get away in the first.

Favorites were bowled over rapidly, excepting in the fourth race, when Meggs succeeded in breaking the monotony.

In the last, however, Orrie Goan, equal choice with March could only run into third place.

GOSSIP OF THE RUNNING TURF. Jockeys Who Have Managerial Feathers Making Much Trouble.

Feathers Making Much Trouble.

Jockeys with managerial fathers are getting to be a misance. "Old Man" Cochran has queered his goed boy, Harry, by interfering with his business. Now "Old Man" Redfern, Jockey Arthur's father, is keeping the New Orleans paddock and stand in a ferment.

Though under contract to ride all Durnell & Herz's horses, Old Man Redfern would not let his boy up when it was muddy. Asked why, he said that Mr. Whitney told him not to let the boy take any chances in mud. The judges told him that his boy would have to ride all mounts accepted the day previous and all of his contractual employers' herses whenever they started. Mr. Styan seems to be doing very well for a beginner.

Starter Dade is in St. Louis from Hen-derson, Ky. He spent the holidays with his parents on the old homestead.

Mose Goldblatt is the boy that has his ups Mose Goldblatt is the boy that has his ups and downs, in and out of the judge's stand. They had Mose and Helgerson up for a ride an and a race of Maghoni's. For the steeth time Meses convinced Steward Bryan that he was the best ever. A dispatch from New Orleans says "The track was frozen this morning and many horses came in from their gallops with their hocks bleeding from becrations received in running over the frozen ground." It is true that many people do not know the differ-ence between a horse's books and heels. Jimmle Johnson, the acrobatic steeple-chase rider who once rode "leps" for John S. Bratton and did a famous flip-flap off Very Light in a hurdle race one day, is riding "leppers" for L. V. Beil next year. Speaking of steeplechases and hurdle races, not for El Capitan Tilles next season. "We tried them last season," said Mr. Til-les, "gave them a big stake and two good purses each week, every chance and every warning, but they will not run on the level, even if certain that they will get ruled off for not doing so. No, we will not give any for not doing so. No, we will not give any jumping races next year." Durnell & Herz gave a handsome price for g 9-year-old horse when they took old Swordsman from W. H. Fizer for $600.

Clem Creveling is as busy as a pondside hen with a brood of ducklings these cold January days. The energetic Clementine personally inspects the plates of every horse running at Newport to satisfy him-self that they are properly shod to run on the various tracks winter weather produces. The owners get into the habit of running them without being sharp shod when it was slippery and they wanted to lose a race, also of running them with sharp calks in sticky mud.

They are breaking hard for Magician Bill They are breaking hard for Magician Bill Fizer, the man who wen lest races with an inferior stable in 1951. There was a day when Fizer had all the race track hypnotized. He could enter a $3.50 horse for $300, win, and never get a boost or a cloim if he lost. Not so these days. If he puts a $1.50 horse in for $1.500 they boost him $100 just for luck. He lost If You Dare for $1.700 the other day. If cost him $2.500 to protect the horse in New Orleans. Fizer certainly had a good thing for years by being able to enter stake horses in cheap selling races. All at once they began to break had and now they keep him hustling.

J. W. Brooks wants Mars Cassidy to start, Ed Powers to clerk and John F. Morse to judge at his Los Angeles meeting. If Brooks comes East he can pick up lots of horses. Les Angeles is a rich place in white, a splendid climate, fine soil for horses fect and legs, nice Southern trips back to the East—the dreaded coid ride over the mountains of Nevada being avoided—and is all in all bound to be the best racing point in the country. Brooks does not enjoy the confidence and support of horsemen, but he has a splendid proposition in his hand.

"Ed Maginn of the local tracks is the keenest handicapper I eyer knew," said Chris Rhockmiller, a local bookmaker, yesterdey, "I notice the owners of those alleged good horses are always kicking about his allowing dogs in handicaps and patting light weight on them, thus giving a $300 plater a chance to beat a $3,500 staker.
"Now at the bottom of all this kicking against the chance given the cheap plater is the old desire to get a sure thing to bet on. Let four or five of those 'good horse' owners get in a handicap by themselves. They will soon know who to bet on. But throw in three or four dogs for good measure, give them a chance to win, and the 'good herse' owners will not be so sure about picking the winner. So the public and bookmakers have a chance.
"They all hallo murder because they are asked to give a 'dog' weight and run hard to beat him. Now, what is a handicap if every one in the race has not a chance to win?
"This elaptrap about catering to good win?

"This claptrap about catering to good horses is all in my eye. You saw three or four of these 'good horse' races last year, and the one the owners bet on got the money.
"Give me Magian with his 'dogs." Between Magian, the dogs and the much-abused $2 betters, racing hereabouts is kept pretty well within control."

Whatever may be said about outlaw owners and Newpert racing, the horsemen operating at the Cincinnati track cannot be accused of tack of good-fellowship. The other day Elil Boughn's mare Mome Wastell fell and broke her beg while running on the Newport track. Yesterday the owners rain a special race and gave the entire purse to Baughn to buy another horse. Lengen, Dre. 31.—Ted Sloan's valet, a Swiss named Carless, was remained at a police court here to-day charged with stealing the American jockey's diamond sleeve links, valued at $155, a dress suit and other articles. Sloan, who said he desired to no abroad, was bound over to attend the trial.
